POLICY REPORT – November 15, 2022 Meeting

PRESENT: Allison Silverstein, Phaedra Dunn, Crystal Hopkins (Dr. Harrison Crawford was ill)

1. Policy 2330 Proposed changes.

- a. Changes to Paragraph 9: Weekend and holiday homework is discouraged. Make-up work, long-term projects and research papers may be assigned over periods that include weekends and/or holidays. However, if any homework, make-up work or long-term projects are assigned over any extended break from school including, but not limited to, Thanksgiving break, winter break, spring break or summer break, same may not be due until the second meeting of any class and/or within three days following such break, whichever is lesser.

- b. Changes to Paragraph 10: Teachers are expected to be aware of religious observances that may affect a student's ability to complete homework assignments. Reasonable extensions no less than one day/24 hours shall be granted upon request without consequences.
 - c. We will discuss with Dr. Harrison Crawford via email and hope to have for first read soon.
2. Agenda items - moving forward on everything except P5512. We want to talk to Ms. Dock about this and have her review prior to moving forward. Hoping to schedule meeting in interim to hopefully have on December agenda.
- i. P2415.04 Title I-District-Wide Parent and Family Engagement
 - ii. P241d5.50 Title I-School Parent and Family Engagement
 - iii. P3161 Examination for Cause
 - iv. P4161 Examination for Cause
 - v. P5460 High School Graduation
3. Regulations were not address since Dr. Harrison Crawford was not present.
4. We did not discuss class size. We will put this on December agenda.
